FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Leadership Directories releases Congressional Leadership Alerts[™] New online service provides daily notifications on leadership changes in the U.S. Congress

New York, NY (Leadership Directories, Inc.) February 22, 2007 – Leadership Directories is pleased to announce the release of Congressional Leadership Alerts[™], an online service that sends Congressional leadership updates directly to subscribers' email inboxes each day.

Congressional Leadership Alerts[™] delivers breaking information about Members of Congress and the key staff who support them, including updates on new committee assignments, phone and fax numbers, e-mail addresses, staff appointments, biographical information, and more.

Subscribers to Congressional Leadership Alerts[™] can customize search criteria and track any individual in the Leadership Directories Congressional database. Congressional Leadership Alerts[™] will send an e-mail each time the selected individual's information is updated, or if a new person matching the set criteria is added to the database. The Alert will include all of the current contact information, biographical data, and job information contained in the Congressional database for this person, along with the former information.

"Our editors are constantly updating the information in our Congressional database," said Sue Healy, Leadership Directories' Vice President of Product Development. "Because Congressional Leadership Alerts[™] pushes these changes directly to our subscribers, this new information is immediately apparent, and actionable, for our customers."

With Congressional Leadership Alerts[™], users can keep current with shifts that affect specific legislative areas, provide a research tool for students and professionals, find contacts who can assist with a problem or advocacy issue, or monitor breaking news on Capitol Hill.
