Leadership Directories Releases Fall Edition of Federal Yellow Book Updated directory provides contact information for Federal employees in the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area

New York, NY (Leadership Directories, Inc.) September 27, 2007 – Leadership Directories announces the release of the Fall 2007 Edition of the Federal Yellow Book, a quarterly directory of individuals in the federal government located within the Washington, DC metropolitan area.

The updated edition of the Federal Yellow Book includes contact information for more than 44,000 federal officials, including White House staff, cabinet-level appointees, agency directors, and administrators. The new directory includes more than 85 independent agencies.

“The final 18 months in an administration are always interesting,” says Federal Yellow Book Editor Tom Zurla. “As we get closer to the 2008 election, many officials are transitioning out and new people taking over their roles, like Jim Nussle, the new Director of the Office of Management and Budget, or the new Deputy Secretary at the United States Department of Transportation, Thomas J. Barrett. On average, we’re tracking about a dozen major department and agency nominations each week.”

Federal Yellow Book listings provide names, titles, mailing addresses, direct-dial phone numbers, fax numbers, emails, and selected biographical information. All contact and biographical data is source-verified by an in-house editorial team. The directory also provides an organizational index to reference executive departments, bureaus, administrations, agencies, institutes, and commissions.
